23rd February 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

The 4th of March is World Book Day. On this day, we will be setting some activities that will be based on a character from a text that will be chosen by your child. We have tried to keep the activities as manageable as possible for those learning at home and they should not require significant resourcing or adult support. There will be a Google meet as usual that morning.

There will also be the option to dress as a character from a text. Please don't feel you need to order anything for this. Reusing a previous costume is ideal or you could print a blank mask for your child to decorate as character of their choice.

We will be sending a link out to the World Book Day token which you can download and redeem this year.

We understand that homes across Hayling Island area also displaying book covers in their windows as a trail for children to spot. This may be worth looking out for on your local walks or perhaps you could one to your own windows!

Kind regards,

Odele Davies
